The Kitty Genovese Women's Project Newspaper

Table of Contents

International Women's Day, March 8, 1977 — Dallas, Texas — 20 pages

Compiled by Claude (Anthropic) with Nikki Craft, July 2026, from the complete page set. Page titles and section headings are drawn directly from the newspaper; names of indicted men are not reproduced here or anywhere in this document — they remain image-only in the archive.

Page 1 ..... Cover / Mission Page

"Was He Asking for It?" cross-examination piece, running into "RAPE" (continues p.16); $1,000 Reward — Friendly Rapist box (hand-stamped "APPREHENDED" on all copies); Kitty Genovese photo and memorial; Statement of Purpose.

Page 2 ..... "Rape Victims Speak Out!"

Lead account — "But There's Some Doubt About Your Virginity… Now Have You Been Messing Around?" — Nikki Craft's own testimony, published under her name; "State of Siege"; "Strong, Self-Determined…A Will of Iron" begins (continues p.3).

Page 3 ..... Testimony and Reading List

"A Will of Iron" concludes; "How in the Hell Can Women Feel Good About This Kind of Society?"; "Ways to Avoid Rape: A New Study" (Rasa Gustaitis); editorial quotations (Victoria Woodhull, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Hunter S. Thompson); Reward Information; Acknowledgements.

Page 4 ..... Texas Penal Code / Racism and Rape

Texas Penal Code, Chapter 21 (Sexual Offenses) reproduced in full; Abbreviations key for the indictment columns; "Racism and Rape" begins — the project's acknowledgment that an indictment-based list will over-represent minority and low-income men, with supporting scholarship cited (continues p.17).

Page 5 ..... Sex Offender Indictments, Dallas County, 1960–1976 — begins

Indictment columns begin: surnames A–B. Case number, year, plea, charge, and sentence for each entry.

Page 6 ..... Indictments continue: B–D

Inset boxes: a rapist's own account of his motive ("It's fun"); rape framed as political terror, analogous to lynching.

Page 7 ..... Indictments continue: D–G

Inset boxes: the "Miss Jones" courtroom cross-examination; Golda Meir's reply on curfews ("Let the men stay home").

Page 8 ..... "RAPED" — poem by Leslie Weston

Full-page poem with ink illustration. Rights pending; held as image, not transcribed.

Page 9 ..... Indictments continue: G–H

Inset boxes: a survivor's account of the police "going-over" after reporting; Carol Sternhell, "Rape, The Women Are Talking About Anger," Mother Jones, February 1976.

Page 10 ..... Indictments continue: H–K

Sternhell excerpt continues; Detective Al Simon (NYPD) on believing survivors; New York rape-conviction statistics and gallows-humor items.

Page 11 ..... Indictments continue: K–M

Inset boxes: Gillian Jones ("Who's supposed to be on trial here?"); an unattributed call to action; Detective Robert Magnusson (NYPD) on changing his own skepticism.

Page 12 ..... Indictments continue: M–R

Inset box: Nikki Craft's “deadly insult” statement — “Rape is a deadly insult against women's self-determination…” — the project's thesis stated directly, set among the name columns.

Page 13.....“For Inez” — song by Nikki Craft

Full-page song with ink illustration, written for Inez García and Joan Little. Primary-source documentation of the song's existence, later deleted from Wikipedia for lack of a URL.

Page 14.....Indictments continue

Indictment columns continue. Inset-box content not yet catalogued in detail.

Page 15.....Indictments continue

Indictment columns continue. Inset-box content not yet catalogued in detail.

Page 16.....Indictments conclude / “Little Things” / Law & Order

Indictment columns end: surnames run through the alphabet's close. “RAPE” essay concludes here (from p.1). “Little Things” — a personal essay on believing rape myths as a child. “Law & Order” — Dallas Morning News jury-trial statistics, Jan. 10, 1977. Suggested Reading List. Detective Lecretia Belardo quotation (“Why didn't you scream?”).

Page 17.....“Racism and Rape” concludes / A 53-Year-Old Rape Victim

“Racism and Rape” essay concludes (from p.4). A survivor's account, headlined around her age; “We Must Fight Together or Be Attacked Alone”; Yvonne Warrow / Yvonne's Legal Defense Fund notice.

Page 18.....Inez García / Disarm Rapists

“Nigger, Chick, Broad, Cunt — It's All the Same” essay; “Crimes Against Women” section; Inez García case material; “Disarm Rapists / Smash Sexism” graphic; “A Little Bit of Rape Is Good for a Man's Soul” heading/quotation.

Page 19.....News Briefs / 204 Indictments

“News Briefs” — “Friendly Forces Go Home,” “Two Women, Two Attacks — Dismissed”; “Little Rapes”; “…AND 204 INDICTMENTS” / “Rape Is Man's Fantasy and Women's Nightmare”; epigraph from Marge Piercy, Living in the Open.

Page 20.....“Unapprehended” — Alleged Sex Offenders, Dallas County, 1977

Supplementary list of men indicted but not yet apprehended at time of publication, distinct in format from the main A–Z indictment columns.